

Fabricator/A&P Mechanic

---

Description:

This position is for an experienced A&P mechanic with extensive fabricating experience. This person will be responsible for fabricating metal parts and structures from CAD drawings and blueprints.

Some of the important tasks they may perform include the following:

- Read CAD drawings and blueprints.
- TIG welding of steel and aluminum parts
- Fabricate sheet metal parts
- Remove or install engine using hoist or forklift truck.
- Read, understand, and work from aircraft maintenance manuals and specifications.
- Use hand tools and power tools.
- Supervise 1 or 2 people
- Be able to work alone

Personal Requirements:

- FAA A&P Mechanics License preferred
- TIG welding experience required
- Excellent metal fabrication skills required
- Positive attitude
- Good interpersonal skills
- Adaptable
- Responsible

For more information or to submit resume please contact:

Dan Bierly

d.bierly@zivko.com

Phone: (405) 282-1330

Fax: (405) 282-1339